

CCUG Central Chapter Quarterly Training Meeting

Date: March 6, 2012

Location: Marriott Courtyard
Stockton, California

Call to Order

The meeting was opened by Nanette Pipitone-Pennock, Central Chapter Director. She welcome those in attendance and reminded all members to reserve their spot for the CCUG Seminar that will be held in Foster City in September 2012.

Executive Director Address

CCUG Executive Director Keith LeBrun was in attendance. He encouraged attendees whose departments were not members of CCUG to become members. Keith also suggested that attendees check out the CCUG website (www.ccug.org) for current information. Keith again encourages those in attendance to attend the seminar in September.

Agencies in Attendance

Arroyo Grande Police Department
Avenal Police Department
Campbell Police Department
Citrus Heights Police Department
Concord Police Department
Corcoran Police Department
Hollister Police Department
Kern Co. District Attorney, Bureau of Investigation

Kings County Sheriff's Department
Los Angeles County Sheriff's Dept.
Madera County Sheriff's Department
Napa Police Department
San Joaquin County Probation
San Leandro Police Department
Santa Clara Police Department
Sunnyvale Police Department
United States Park Police

Vendors in Attendance

Level II, Inc.
Complete Paperless Solutions

Contact Information

(888) 232-9609
(866) 661-2425

Morning Speaker

Megan Eschleman and Kaycee Leonard, Department of Justice

Contact Information

(916) 227-3242

megan.eschleman@doj.ca.gov

kaycee.leonard@doj.ca.gov

Subject Spoke On

Missing and Unidentified Persons Unit (MUPS)

CCUG Business

Don't forget to mark your calendars for our 2012 seminar that will be held Sept 10-14 at the Foster City Crowne Plaza. The invitation, information and registration form can be found at www.ccug.org.

Afternoon Speaker

Ruth Amaro, Sex Offender Tracking Program, Department of Justice

Contact Information

(916) 227-4244

ruth.amaro@doj.ca.gov

Subject Spoke On

Sex Offender Tracking Program (SOTP)

Next Meeting:

To be Announced

Location: