

CCUG Southern Chapter Training Meeting July 14, 2022 – Chino Hills, Ca

Training: Investigative Resources and Systems for Law Enforcement [0900-1130]

Presented by: Joshua Goldmark, West Cities Police Communications

This session will include a review of various types of electronic resources that can be leveraged by law enforcement for different types of investigations. These will include web-based private and commercial systems, Law Enforcement Only databases, and CLETS/NCIC queries. There will be an emphasis on information sharing systems and License Plate Reader (LPR) technology available in our region. Users will do scenario based searches during the session to familiarize themselves with resources offered.

Training: Parole LEADS [1300-1600]

Presented by: Joshua Goldmark, West Cities Police Communications

This session will provide an explanation of the Parole LEADS system and users will perform scenario based searches under a training login. Following the end of the session, users in attendance of the full session will have their information forwarded for individual user IDs and passwords.

Note: Please bring a laptop that can connect to the internet via wi-fi.
