

CCUG Southern Chapter Training Meeting May 28 2025 – Chino Hills, CA

Training: Round Table [0800-0900]

An open forum for attendees to share insights, ask questions, and discuss any challenges currently being faced by our agencies. This opportunity allows for us to build connections, exchange contact information and support partnerships that support our communities.

Training: Human Trafficking Investigations[0900-1600]

Presented by: Sgt. Kim Hernandez, San Bernardino Police Department

Sgt Hernandez will be discussing how human trafficking affects our local community—where and how it exists, how to recognize and identify possible victims, and how these cases are investigated by law enforcement. We'll also touch on a critical topic for families: online safety for parents and caretakers.

Sgt Hernandez brings firsthand experience, having previously served as a human trafficking detective on the San Bernardino County Human Trafficking Task Force. Her expertise in this field is extensive, and her dedication to supporting victims continues beyond her law enforcement role. Sgt. Hernandez also serves as a board member for Magdalena's Daughters, a local non-profit that provides awareness education to students and community members, as well as safe housing for vulnerable youth who have experienced exploitation.
